With the new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) that applies from 25 May 2018 and replaces the previous Personal Data Act (PUL), we want to inform how we handle your personal data.

We only collect the information that is necessary to fulfill the business commitments that you and We have agreed.

It can be for example: name, e-mail, address, telephone. We only register information provided by you as a customer. Either via our form on the website or as you have otherwise provided us.

You are at any time welcome to check or change the information we have stored.

With kind regards // Däckproffsen
